About this questionnaire

7. Do you like the style so far? Yes No
8. Is it really worth the ink? Guess so. Probably not. Don't know.
9. How does this item look different from the previous one? Oh. Does it?
 No clue. I just can't figure it out. So sorry.
 I guess what you mean is that here the different answer options are below each other.

10a. Please describe your first impression.

10b. In case you would like some more lines to write, here they are:

Another feature

Now, here is another nice feature: you can automatically alter the background color of the items. Here is how it can look like. Because we are too lazy to think of new questions we will just ask you the same questions again. There is one difference to the above though, can you find it?
